

THE MONEY MARKET.

During the week ended yesterday there was little of a "boom" in commercial circles. Speculation continued to block the wheels of an export movement, and the stocks of provisions and breadstuffs...

The share speculation was feverish and fitful throughout, and although prices generally show some improvement, the principal advances are confined to a few stocks which have come to the special favorites of the hour because of some supposed peculiar local reason.

The following were the closing quotations Saturday:
Name, For the week, Change, No. shares sold.

Table with columns: Name, For the week, Change, No. shares sold. Lists various stocks like Albany and Susquehanna, Alton and Terro Haute, etc.

In financial circles the week was not prolific of important events. Perhaps the most noteworthy was the deposit of legal funds by the Metropolitan Bank to retire $2,200,000 of its circulation...

Table with columns: Name, 1879, 1880, Difference. Lists financial statistics like Loans, Legal-tenders, Circulation, etc.

At the Stock Exchange the markets were fairly active, and a generally cheerful and buoyant feeling prevailed. The Government bond market was firm all the way out, and every issue shows an advance...

ume XXIX.—July to December, 1879. The Chronicle's recapitulation of the principal receipts and shipments of flour and grain at the principal Atlantic ports Saturday, January 17, were:
New-York, Baltimore, Phila., Boston, etc.
